

Musique and Masque is Hosting a Reunion/Celebration! September 15 | 3:30pm (Miller Chapel)

BIG CHANGES ARE IN STORE FOR MUSIQUE & MASQUE (M&M)! With the retirement of the current leadership and renewed energy in the Miller Chapel, it's time to re-invent the theater program. But wait! Before we head down a new "yellow brick road," we want to take a look back and revisit some wonderful memories of past shows.

On Sunday, September 15 at 3:30pm, M&M will host a KVOM radio show in the Miller Chapel for company members past and present. Entertainment will be provided by YOU – there will be snippets of favorite musical numbers, a snappy narrative to tie it together, along with some fabulous Goerner visuals - this is a great opportunity to join some of your former besties on stage for a fun-filled afternoon.

Following the entertainment, there will be a catered dinner in Fellowship Hall with lots of time to catch up with former stage-mates.

Participation in the entertainment will include minimal rehearsal time - a dress rehearsal on Saturday, September 14 – and small group rehearsals during August, both in-person and/or on Zoom.
